

Expanding Horizons

KOTG

Intentionally positioned as an EFFECTIVE gateway for business, leisure and economic potential.

The Worthington Airport was built to handle air traffic ranging from general aviation to commuter airlines. We are proactive in keeping its infrastructure updated and competitive. Runways, hangars, passenger terminal and systems easily accommodate business jets and corporate travelers, as well as medical emergency flights and general aviation enthusiasts.

RUNWAYS

[Runway 11-29] [5500'] [ILS equipped] Resealed in 2010.
[Runway 17-35] [4200'] Reconstructed in 2009.

SERVICES

The Worthington Airport is operated by a [full-service FBO] offering [corporate aircraft leases], [aircraft management], and [fuel, ramp and concierge services], as well as aircraft inspections and maintenance, flight training, flight reviews, and aircraft rental.

FUEL

[JetA and 100LL available 24/7] Completely updated tanks and systems in 2010.

AIRCRAFT FACILITIES

A 14,000^{sq ft} maintenance facility accommodates everything from [small aircraft trainers] to [King Airs] to [corporate jets]. A new 7200^{sq ft} [corporate hangar] is available for lease. A [new row of T-hangars] for a total of 22, with 10 serving light twin aircraft.

PASSENGER FACILITIES

The recently updated [executive-class] terminal is [modern], [well-appointed], [professional] and [hard-working]. Large, comfortable main lounge, dining area, full kitchen, large restrooms, pilot's lounge, weather and flight planning center, conference room, business offices, refreshments, cable tv and wi-fi.

We can help

your business SOAR.

5500' updated
runway system

ILS Precision approach

Well-appointed amenities

Full-Service
FBO

Executive-class
Terminal

Competitive services

KOTG

43.655°,-95.579°

1698 Airport Road
Worthington, MN

507.376.9293