

Planning Commission Members Needed

The City of Worthington is seeking applications from citizens interested in serving on the City's Planning Commission. The Planning Commission is mostly an advisory commission to the Worthington City Council. The Commission is responsible for preparing and maintaining the City's Comprehensive Plan. It is also responsible for making recommendations to the City Council involving development projects and zoning issues, including but not limited to plat approvals, zoning amendments, re-zonings, conditional use permits, and other matters. It also acts as the Board of Zoning Appeals in making decisions on variance requests.

The City of Worthington has an interest in providing a diverse membership of the Planning Commission. Citizens with the following skills and experiences are desirable:

1. Background in land use planning and/or engineering
2. Background of community involvement
3. Experience with business ownership
4. Interest in neighborhood and community issues
5. Interest in natural resource preservation
6. Knowledge of real estate acquisition, development, and/or law
7. Willingness and ability to commit to requirements of position

Planning Commissioners serve on a voluntary basis and are appointed to 3-year terms by the City Council (maximum of 6 consecutive years). Time commitments are generally 1-2 hours per month and meetings are generally held on the first Tuesday of each month at 7:00 PM.

If interested, please submit the application found here to City Hall.

If you have questions about the Planning Commission or about becoming a Commissioner, please contact Jeremiah Cromie, City Planner, at 507-372-8640 or e-mail him at jcromie@ci.worthington.mn.us
